By Airplane:
If a team wishes to travel via airplane, the closest airport to William & Mary Law School is the Newport News/Williamsburg International Airport. The Newport News Airport is served by a number of airlines with connecting flights through Philadelphia, Charlotte, Atlanta, and Chicago. From there, a team can rent a car and travel to William & Mary within twenty minutes using the driving directions from Points East.

Both the Richmond International Airport and the Norfolk International Airport are an hour away. Both have more direct flight options available than the Newport News airport. From Norfolk, use the driving directions from Points East; from Richmond, use the directions from Points West.
By Rail:

Finally, Williamsburg is served directly by the Amtrak Rail Service, with trains originating from Washington, DC and Norfolk, VA. The station is located in Williamsburg Center. From there, teams may take taxis to their desired destinations, including the hotel and the Law School, both of which are nearby.
